

Manifestation Coaching Contract

This agreement is between

(herein referred to as “the coach”)

And

(herein referred to as “the client”)

The coach will provide a cooperative process consisting of sharing and providing the client feedback within a safe, supportive environment.

This process is not to be construed as psychotherapy or counseling. Nor should it be used as a substitute for legal, financial, or medical services.

Any decisions the client makes and the consequences thereof are their own. The client should always seek the advice of their physician, pharmacist, or other qualified health care provider prior to commencing any treatment for any conditions, diseases or maladies, and questions in relation to such treatment should be directed to such professional health care providers. The client should never disregard their professional medical advice or delay in seeking such advice because of information obtained from the coach.

Here are the parameters of each coaching session:

- The client and coach will find a mutually agreed upon time for 8 coaching sessions.
- Coaching sessions are approximately 30 minutes in length.
- Coaching sessions are held in person or via telephone, Skype, or FaceTime.
- The coach is not responsible for any follow up services (telephone or text).
- The coach is not responsible for any long-distance telephone charges or fees the client may inquire.

Nature of Services:

Each session will include the coach’s intuitive sense of how to make and manifest your goals. The coach will assist you in helping you to determine the goals that will serve your highest and best good. Each coaching session will walk you through how to break down and understand the nature of the goals for you and those around you. Sessions may include the use of tarot/oracle cards.

Fees and Payments for Services:

Fees and payments will be discussed and booked on a month to month basis. A client cannot book less than a month’s worth of sessions. Each session is approximately 30 minutes each. Sessions will be held twice per week at a rate of $400.00 per month.

Cancellation:

All appointments require a minimum of 24 hours notice for rescheduling or cancellation. Because consistency is important to the efficacy of coaching, the client must reschedule within one week in order to be granted the session he or she missed. Should the client not show up without prior notice as stated above, the coach has the right to refuse to coach this client or to reschedule that week. No fees will be refunded for a failure to show.

Confidentiality:

All sessions are considered private and confidential.

Indemnification:

The client shall indemnify and hold the coach harmless from any loss or liability arising from actions taken or situations created as a result of the coaching relationship. The client shall not hold the coach liable for goals not achieved.

Alcohol and Drug Policy:

The coach and client will not be under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or prescribed drugs used without the authority of a physician while participating in the coaching sessions. This does not include drugs prescribed by a physician or over-the counter medications used according to the directions as labeled.
